

VOLUME II.

D'BUILL'S

Syrup

BUSINESS CARDS.

DR. W. M. FUQUA,

SURGEON,

Office, Hopper Block, Residence,

Corner Virginia and Broad streets,

Jan. 17.

COOK &amp; RICE,

PREMIUM LAGER BEER

CITY BREWERY.

KANSASVILLE, INDIANA.

No. 211, upper corner St.

J. H. TUNKS,

BLACKSMITH,

Can now be found at his old stand on Russell,

between the lines of the Kentucky River,

stable, ready to wait upon his old customers,

and to furnish a specialty.

March 2, 1880.

J. H. TUNKS,

BLACKSMITH,

Can now be found at his old stand on Russell,

between the lines of the Kentucky River,

stable, ready to wait upon his old customers,

and to furnish a specialty.

March 2, 1880.

J. H. TUNKS,

BLACKSMITH,

Can now be found at his old stand on Russell,

between the lines of the Kentucky River,

stable, ready to wait upon his old customers,

and to furnish a specialty.

March 2, 1880.

J. H. TUNKS,

BLACKSMITH,

Can now be found at his old stand on Russell,

between the lines of the Kentucky River,

stable, ready to wait upon his old customers,

and to furnish a specialty.

March 2, 1880.

J. H. TUNKS,

BLACKSMITH,

Can now be found at his old stand on Russell,

between the lines of the Kentucky River,

stable, ready to wait upon his old customers,

and to furnish a specialty.

March 2, 1880.

J. H. TUNKS,

BLACKSMITH,

Can now be found at his old stand on Russell,

between the lines of the Kentucky River,

stable, ready to wait upon his old customers,

and to furnish a specialty.

March 2, 1880.

J. H. TUNKS,

BLACKSMITH,

Can now be found at his old stand on Russell,

between the lines of the Kentucky River,

stable, ready to wait upon his old customers,

and to furnish a specialty.

March 2, 1880.

J. H. TUNKS,

BLACKSMITH,

Can now be found at his old stand on Russell,

between the lines of the Kentucky River,

stable, ready to wait upon his old customers,

and to furnish a specialty.

March 2, 1880.

J. H. TUNKS,

BLACKSMITH,

Can now be found at his old stand on Russell,

between the lines of the Kentucky River,

stable, ready to wait upon his old customers,

and to furnish a specialty.

March 2, 1880.

J. H. TUNKS,

BLACKSMITH,

Can now be found at his old stand on Russell,

between the lines of the Kentucky River,

stable, ready to wait upon his old customers,

and to furnish a specialty.

March 2, 1880.

J. H. TUNKS,

BLACKSMITH,

Can now be found at his old stand on Russell,

between the lines of the Kentucky River,

stable, ready to wait upon his old customers,

and to furnish a specialty.

A POETICAL ESSAY TO MISS

CATHARINE JAY.

As a novel means of writing

to the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

the girl who is

Obituary.

Mrs. Dr. Cary, of Mt. Vernon, Ind.

died on Thursday, November 25th,

after an illness of only a few hours.

Mrs. Dr. Cary was the eldest daughter ## of a large family of her highly re## spected father, Jesse B. Cary, and ## was widely known throughout the ## Christian community. She was a ## greatly loved and admired for her

many amiable qualities, kind, gentle ## and modest in her manners, seeking

always for the pure and better ways

of life, a Christian in the true sense.

She was married to Dr. Cary about ## two years ago, leaving parents, friends

and all her kindred and loved ones

in her last illness a great loss.

She was buried in the cemetery at ## Mt. Vernon, Ind., on Saturday, Nov. 27th.

Funeral services were held at ## the residence of her father, Jesse B. Cary,

on Sunday, Nov. 28th, at 10 o'clock.

The services were conducted by

Rev. J. H. Tunks, of this city.

The burial was in the cemetery at

Mt. Vernon, Ind., on Sunday, Nov. 28th.

The services were held at the ## residence of her father, Jesse B. Cary,

on Sunday, Nov. 28th, at 10 o'clock.

The services were conducted by

Rev. J. H. Tunks, of this city.

The burial was in the cemetery at

Mt. Vernon, Ind., on Sunday, Nov. 28th.

The services were held at the ## residence of her father, Jesse B. Cary,

on Sunday, Nov. 28th, at 10 o'clock.

THE SOUTH KENTUCKIAN.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, EDITOR.

HOPKINSVILLE, DEC. 7, 1890

Sara Bernhardt has been on the stage for more than forty-five years.

Look here, Zeke, let's drop that joke. What will you take in your?

In the Lexicon of this editorial establishment, there is no such word as "wife."

Three timesbackers will hold the balance of power in the Indiana Senate.

It is not always the person that does the most talking who advances the most ideas.

Some of the pencil pushers persist in spelling the immortal Sara's name, Sarah, "with an h."

There is no use in his offering it to us, our mind is fully made up not to accept a place in Garfield's cabinet.

The people of Glasgow have no cause to complain of hard times; they have good times once a week anyhow.

We will compare records with those who copy articles about the SOUTH KENTUCKIAN's lack of "consistency."

The Danville Tribune has let up on the Democrats, and is turning its attention to the rascals. We are with you, shake.

A great many of our subscribers are regular "Dr's," but the time comes after instead of before their names which makes a little difference.

The Louisville Commercial says a retired President who would accept one cent of a pension fund ought to be sent to some National eleemosynary institution.

A few of our editorial brethren are worse than our washerwoman. She gives us credit for a month but they don't even give us credit for our own paragraphs they copy.

The editor of the Madisonville Times complains that nobody said "turkey" to him on Thanksgiving day. The people of his town know him and know that appetite of his.

Four counties in Mississippi—Newton, Scott, Jones and Smith voted the Democratic ticket solid, not a Republican or Greenback vote being cast. Hurrah for the "Big 4."

Jos. A. Garfield was elected President, and Chester A. Arthur Vice President of the United States on Wednesday Dec. 1st. The vote was as decided by the popular election Nov. 2.

An exchange says Senator Logan's proposed appointment as Minister to England is opposed by the Chicago Times, upon the ground of his "ignorance of the language spoken in that country."

Mr. M. Hop Johnson, of Tennessee who has some friends and acquaintances in this city, dropped into matrimony a few days since. He married Miss Mollie Smith, of Lamar, Miss. He was formerly a journalist.

Dr. Woods, of the Glasgow Times, complains that some of his exchanges persist in calling off "twenty per cent of the caudal end of his surname that robs him of all idea of plurality, and makes him appear very singular."

A young gentleman of Hopkinsville, when asked by his sweetheart if he had ever read Longfellow's "Rainy Day," replied, that he "commenced it and read three or four chapters but found it too dry that he threw down the book in disgust."

A new Republican paper has been started at Canaan, Ind., edited by Jno. E. Danneil. As probably is out of our line we will not pass the opportunity for a first class pun. The Republican party it seems is worth more in that locality than elsewhere.

The Union Democrat is mistaken, Gen. Washington did not die on the 14th of December 1799, at eleven o'clock p. m. Had he died "on the last hour of the last day," of the year 1799, he would not have expired with the century, as the 15th century did not end till Dec. 31st 1800.

The Covington Commonwealth asks the question, "Who is the honestest editor in the State?" You will excuse our seeming egotism, but the honor of being the Kentucky Journalistic Adonis lies between Frank Bristow and myself, and Bristow is not the man.

Erwin W. Farr, one of the Republican Congressmen-elect from New Hampshire, died last week. Heaven did him what the Democrats failed to do—kept him out of Congress. "True Farr and no farther shall thou go," saith the Lord. Farr, well, you have gone to that land Farr, Farr away.

The Cannon of the Union Democrat fires the following broadside into us. It is the first time we were ever accused of being "good looking."

Meacham, of the South Kentuckian, is leaning to the front ranks as a journalist of acknowledged ability and popularity. In the near days of futurity his paper will be as noted for news as its editor is for grace and good looks, as we learn.

It seems that something has "broken loose in Georgia." The electors, by an awkward blunder, failed to meet and cast their votes for Hancock and English last Wednesday. It does not make a great deal of difference in the general result, but merely throws away the vote of the State.

Ex-convicts, paroled out of the Penitentiary by the Governor, are making things interesting in the role of highwaymen in the vicinity of Louisville. Two men were knocked down and robbed on the Hardtownpike last week, and still the executive machine continues to grind out pardons.

There is a certain blue grass exchange, that we never pick up without thinking of that beautiful June Sabbath at White Sulphur Springs, when with a certain fair damsel we strolled upon the mountain to Lover's Leap and cut with our penknives, upon the rustic seat, two hearts pierced through with a single arrow.

A lot of college girls at Earlham, Ind., had a kicking match after the lights were turned down at night, and a Miss Johnson kicked so high that she fell and injured herself so that fears are entertained of a serious result. It is no new thing for girls to "kick" but the "serious results" generally fall upon the victims of the male persuasion.

The Chinese Giant, Chang, arrived in New York on the 1st from Liverpool. He is the largest man in the world—in fact is a bigger man than old Grant—being 8 feet and six inches in height and large in proportion. It is probable that Garfield will offer him a place in his cabinet.

The Elizabethtown News thus apologizes for crediting one of our paragraphs to our predecessor the Democrat.

The Hopkinsville Democrat use to have some mighty good things, and that article of yours so reminded us of them that we inadvertently misrope the credit.

Thanks for your good opinion.

The Elizabethtown News in speaking of our suggestion of Mr. McKenzies for Governor says,

You are right. South Kentucky should throw off her subservience to the blue-grass region—a subservience as ignoble as that of the old Tories to the mother country."

The man you name, McKenzie, would make as good a Governor as any man in north Kentucky, be he whom he may.

Marquis De Lafayette Hawley was hanged at Salem, Va., on the 26th of Nov. for the murder of Zachariah Hayes. Two days before his execution, he was married in jail, to Miss Watkins. What the object of the romantic alliance was we cannot conjecture, unless it was that he realized that a man in the midst of matrimony could leave the world with less regret than he could in any other condition.

These kind words from the Bowling Green Gazette are appreciated, inasmuch as they come from one who is an entire stranger to us.

Hopkinsville can justly boast of two of the witliest and most readable papers published in the State. Among the rural rosters the notes of Galois and Meacham are always clear and distinct. What they are in said policy, pointed and well. Hopkinsville has a right to be proud of her papers, if she is the epitome of a county that gave Garfield 1,000 majority over Hancock.

Several exchanges have suggested the name of Hon. James A. McKenzies in connection with the next race for Governor. A capital Governor he would make with his executive experience, rare ability, genial manners and sound Democracy.—(Owensboro M. & E.)

Every paper in the district but one has declared in favor of McKenzies, and we believe that one would support him for Governor in order to get him out of the way of Congressional aspirants. McKenzies is the coming man. How do you blue grass fellows like the idea?

Could not the use of the letter "C" be entitled to great advantage? When the soft sound of "C" is needed use "S," and when the hard sound is required use "K." Orthography would thus be wonderfully simplified and more easily learned. "C" need not be used except when it precedes or follows "H." Let us hear from some of our professors upon this subject.—Harford Herald.

Since you have asked our opinion on the subject we will give it officially and gratuitously. The letter "C" is the most important one in the alphabet. It begins our name and we are opposed to changing the manner of spelling it. We deem it unnecessary to state further reasons as to why it is sufficient, and will settle the matter. Take the "H" the "S" or any other letter, if you must, but let us "C."

Mr. Haysdon H. Shouse, of Henderson, Ky., enlisted at the Louisville Hotel Tuesday night, by taking loudness. He made the preparations for death with terrible coolness.

He expressed his peace, watch and other valuables to his wife at Evansville, wrote a letter telling how his body should be shipped to his home, then took the fatal drug and retired as for the night. He had been on a spree for several days and had lost heavily at the gaming table. He was a prominent lawyer of Henderson and it will be remembered, announced himself for Congress last summer and then withdrew in a huff over a disagreement with McKenzies. He was about 80 years old and a handsome talented fellow. He married Miss Mollie Vance three years ago. She was a daughter of Hon. S. B. Vance and is not yet 20 years old. He leaves also one babe. It is an unfortunate affair, and an inexplicable one.

Mr. Wm. Reed and Miss Carrie Shoup were married in the middle of the afternoon Wednesday; while the bride's father of the sixteen year old bride stood upon the bank, like Lord Ullin, and tore his hair in wild rage and despair. The father was sending the girl across the ferry in charge of her grandfather to take the train for Missouri to get her out of the reach of her lover, but the preacher and the disguised sweetheart were on the boat and as soon as it left the bank, Reed threw off his disguise and in the presence of the grateful father the knot was tied. The father subsequently forgave them upon the ground that "it was the first time he had ever been checked."

A little sensation has been created in New Orleans society. Frank T. Howard a young man 26 years old began about three years ago to pay marked attention to Mrs. Emma C. Dowsett a dashing young widow belonging to one of the first families of the city. She had two children and was about four years his senior. Matters continued this way till last September when the lady was visiting friends in Virginia. Howard went to see her and took her out to ride and they were clandestinely married by one Wilton. They afterwards met at a hotel in Atlanta, and other places, and occupied the same room, as man and wife. On a recent visit to Nashville, Mrs. Dowsett divulged the secret and thereby hangs the tale. The co-actress she held was hanged and Wilton was not a Justice of the Peace as she was led to believe and Howard denied the validity of the marriage. In a word she had been deceived by Howard and is still Mrs. Dowsett.

"Drick" Pomeroy has made a great hit with his new paper THE GREAT WEST, which he started in Denver last June, and which he sent to more than 25,000 subscribers to his old paper, POMEYOR'S DEMOCRAT after it was suspended, following tergivers of his partner. THE GREAT WEST is a handsome eight-page paper, illustrated each week with views of Colorado mines, mountains, scenery, etc., and is all in all a wonderfully interesting paper; with its Saturday Night chapter, its valuable editorial letters describing that rich country, its letters from the people, its red-hot editorials, crisp items, wit, ugliness, Home Corner chats, news, etc. It is now a red-hot, slap-dab, independent paper, above all party lines, but is death against United States bonds and all robberies of the poor. It is sent, one year for $2, or six copies one year for $10. Since "Drick" makes his big strike in the mines, he is making a paper more lively than ever. Address M. M. Pomeroy, Denver, Colorado, and send for the paper if you wish something you will read from end to end.

The Potosi Enterprise is still worshipping the Blue Grass deity and has declared for Col. Thos. L. Jones for Governor. We were in hope that the entire press of the First, Second and Third Districts would unite upon McKenzies or some other good man from this end of the State, and by united action secure the Executive from this section for once only. There is no sense or justice in letting the Blue Grass region have all the fort offices, and if we will set our veto upon it we can have a change next time.

The above from the Hopkinsville South Kentuckian is not very consistent with its course in the last gubernatorial race. Then the Third District put out a candidate but the South Kentuckian did not "unite," but went off with an attack of yellow fever after a doctor. If he has got enough of the doctor now, and I want to commend new use on the ruling business, we are with him, and would just as soon see it written Gov. McKenzies as any other way, and a little "scooter."—(Bowling Green Gazette.)

There has been a change in the editorship of the South Kentuckian since the race alluded to. The present editor was not among those who went crazy on the subject of yellow fever and Dr. Blackburn. He was one of only two men in his district to vote for Underwood in the primary convention. As a county correspondent he had the bad luck to newspaper controversy with the editor of the South Kentuckian, his predecessor, on the subject. No, sir, we were a strong Underwood man and our course has been consistent all the way through. Give us your hand on the McKenzies question and let's unite.

Thos Grayson, aged 45, suicided at Mt. Sterling.

Gen. Geo. B. Crittenden, of Danville, a distinguished Confederate General, died last week.

Charlie Penn, died from the lodgment of a grain of corn in his throat at Georgetown.

Miss Minnie Machos, of Edylville, gave an eleocionary exercise at Madisonville last week, in the interest of Good Templarism.

Mr. D. A. Nibbet, of Evansville, was married to Miss Mary C. Bransford, of Owensboro, last week. The groom is an ex-Kentuckian and the bride was one of the loveliest of Kentucky's charming bells, we wish them joy.

HARTFORD HERALD:—There are a great many mean men in the world, but the meanest are those who will subscribe for a paper on credit and promise to pay soon and fail to do it and just about the time they conclude the paper will be stopped unless paid for, and wait and order it discontinued, and say it is not wanted longer, and not a word about paying for the time it has been taken. We have been served this way a few times and intend to publish a black list of all such in the first issue in 1891, and leave it standing until all the meanest are paid.

GENERAL NEWS.

Mexico's debt is $144,000,000. Laycock won $300 at the Thames rowing match.

Iowa is the second wheat growing State in the Union.

E. W. Wellington shot himself dead in a Boston barroom.

Mrs. Bullett, of Whitewater, Wis., drowned herself in a stream.

A jilted California lover married the girl's mother out of spite.

O. O. Stealey is writing up the South for the Courier-Journal.

Several cases of yellow fever have been discovered in Albany, Ga.

Chas. R. Whipple, a noted Journalist, of Nashville, is dead.

The Colorado legislature will be Republican by 53 on joint ballot.

Col. R. M. Kelly is speaker of the Southern member of the Cabinet.

Wm. A. Barreca murdered his wife with a shot gun at Farmstead, Ind.

Vietor Newcomb has resigned the Presidency of the L. & N. railroad.

Three Cadets have died at the Annapolis naval Academy in three weeks.

An unknown man leaped off the St. Louis bridge and found a watery grave.

Simon Cameron has nominated Garfield for a second term. Rather premature.

Hart, the publisher of the New York Tribune, has sued "Gath" for libel for $10,000.

Annie Shaw, of Minneapolis, killed herself with strychnine, on account of unrequited love.

Lionel Thackeray, who married Gen. Sherman's daughter, has been assigned to duty in Boston.

Rer. Geo. Kennedy was fatally stabbed in Boise City, by a San Francisco rough, named Gates.

Miss Mary Garfield, the young daughter of the President-elect, is at school in Cleveland for the winter.

Gen. Miles has been appointed to fill the vacancy in the Signal Service caused by the death of Gen. Meyers.

An eloping couple found out after a week's honeymoon, that they had been married by a spurious justice of the Peace.

The wife of Jone Heard was burned to death while working herself in her husband's blacksmith shop, near Chattanooga.

Gen. H. L. Brown, of Erie, Pa. died Thursday from the effects of an old wound received in the lungs during the war.

F. B. Taylor has been elected in the 19th Ohio District to succeed Garfield. He had scarcely any Democratic opposition.

Miss Carrie Walker, of Nashville, made her debut last week, in that city as Pauline. She is said to resemble Mary Anderson.

Any man is authorized to arrest tramps and commit them to jail in Mississippi. From jail they are hired out and put to work.

At riot at Louisville, Col. the Lieut. Gov. elect, Geo. B. Robinson, was shot and killed. It is not known who did the shooting.

The Minnesota Laniatic Asylum fire was set by one of the patients, who was expatriated on account of being given a cold snapper.

Mr. Russell Hancock, son of Gen. Hancock, who, with his family, has been spending the summer on Governor's Island, has gone home to his plantation in Mississippi.

Mrs. Arnold, the sole surviving sister of Stonewall Jackson, now resides at Buckhannon, W. Va. She is said to have adhered strongly to the Union side during the civil war.

Mrs. Hayes has thoughtfully and courteously invited Mrs. Garfield to visit her in Washington this winter, and get as inkling of the duties of the mistress of the White House.

Two little girls aged seven and five years, fell into the canal at Jersey City, N. Y. and Ann. Barton, aged twelve, jumped in to save them, but only succeeded in rescuing the older one.

A change of less than 10,000 votes in four States would have changed the result of the Presidential election. In view of these facts we think the Democracy had better try at least once more.

Mrs. Lucia Noyes, wife of C. H. Noyes, a lawyer in Warren, Pa., was drowned in Dr. LeMoine's crematory Thursday. Noyes had made an agreement with his wife that the body of the first to die should be cremated.

A Nevada widower took his four sisters-in-law to Salt Lake and married them all. They ranged in age from 18 to 30 years; and they profess the most ardent love for their husband as well as for one another.

It is said that no rhymes exist in the English language, for the words silver, orange, month, kiln, hilge and gulf, and yet in the face of this well-known impression, the ingenious, clever and patient puzzle editor of the London Times advertises that he will give $2 3 s to the one who best rhymes the greatest number of the stated words. He calls it a "go an yon place" rhyming match in which no conditions are laid down, save that the best rhyme will win.

GROVERSVILLE, Ky., November 30.—The most infamous outrages have been perpetrated by some unknown rascals in the northern part of this county for several months past. The practice of the contemptible comendral is to go to fields where stock was running out, and after building pens around the helpless animals, rip open their bowels, fill the wounds with turpentine or coal oil, and set it on fire. The howling of the unfortunate brutes can be heard for miles, and the owners, fearing to be shot from the bushes, are afraid to go to the rescue. The motive for such a diabolical deed is shrouded in mystery. The respectable citizens talk of organizing a vigilance to hunt down the perpetrators.

EBENEZER.

Diphtheria is very prevalent in this community. Miss Mary Jones is one who is suffering very seriously with that disease at present.

Wanderer will close his second season at the Pilot (Rock school house. We learn that Captain Stick, lately but only a year in regard to their educational affairs and school rules.

Mr. E. P. Fears, a worthy young man of this vicinity, left for Illinois last week; he will go into business there to remain until next fall.

James Parkman and family will also move to Cavern Rock, Ill., next week. All have the wishes of their many friends for a prosperous life in that State.

Married—Last Thursday, George, of this community, to Miss Cude Grace, of the vicinity of Fruit Hill. May a long and happy life be spared them.

Quite a little trouble was caused last week between Mrs. James O'Daniel and Aaron Tucker. Tucker, being drunk, went to the house of Mrs. O'Daniel and commenced some disorderly conduct, when the latter lifted a fire stick and striking Tucker on the head brought him to the floor. Tucker made his escape without further injury and has paid Mrs. O'Daniel an ample visit, especially when her husband is gone from home.

Quite a change is being made among the renters of this section, all parties seeming anxious to locate themselves before Christmas.

John Shanklin, of the Trierence community, has purchased and moved to the old Meacham farm, in this neighborhood. As Mr. Shanklin is a tanner, it is hoped he will prove useful in this community.

KITTY CLAY.

At Chattanooga a wedding had just taken place and the happy couple were in the act of retiring, when the house took fire and the bride rushed from the house on a dark horse and was picked up and carried to the house of a neighbor half unconscious.

J. J. Mitchell

Has moved his shop to the house formerly occupied by Mr. W. H. Hays as a cooper shop. He has a large stock of cooper ware, and where he will do all kinds of work.

Blacksmithing and Wheelwrighting.

Tobacco Stripped and

Prized

For 50 cents per 100 lbs.

Having secured accommodations in a large and comfortable building, I am prepared to do all kinds of tobacco stripping and grading, and will do it for 50 cents per 100 lbs. in cash. I will do all kinds of work in tobacco, and will do it for 50 cents per 100 lbs. in cash. I will do all kinds of work in tobacco, and will do it for 50 cents per 100 lbs. in cash.

Wonderful Cures

MADE BY THE USE OF

DR. RAGLAND'S

"Lightning Relief."

BRONXVILLE, N. Y., Nov. 26, 1890.

Dr. J. H. Ragland, Jackson, Tenn.: It is my desire to express in your paper my grateful feelings for the prompt and successful relief of my rheumatism by your wonderful "Lightning Relief." I have suffered from this disease for many years, and have tried every remedy known to man, but have not been able to get any relief. I have been so afflicted that I could not stand and I could not sleep. I have been so afflicted that I could not stand and I could not sleep. I have been so afflicted that I could not stand and I could not sleep.

Very respectfully, H. H. FULTON.

JACKSON, TENN., AUG. 11, 1890. I wish to state, for the benefit of those who suffer with Rheumatism, that I have suffered with this terrible disease in the most violent form, for two months, and have been treated by the best medical men in Jackson, Tenn., but have not been able to get any relief. I have been so afflicted that I could not stand and I could not sleep. I have been so afflicted that I could not stand and I could not sleep.

Very respectfully, JAMES V. YANN.

Case of Rheumatism in Christian County.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Dec. 6, 1890. I certify that I have been suffering with Rheumatism at the spinal column for more than twelve months. I had been treated by several physicians without being cured. I was so afflicted that I could not stand and I could not sleep. I have been so afflicted that I could not stand and I could not sleep.

Very respectfully, W. M. McRAE.

For sale by subscription in Hopkinsville, Ky., at $1.00 per copy.

CITY BARBER SHOP

HAWKINS, HARGRAVES & CROSS

MAIN ST., OVER HOPKIN'S DRUG STORE. HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

Respectfully invite the public to their

Tonsorial Parlor, prompting to do SHAVING, HAIR CUTTING, SHAMPOOING, etc., in the most excellent style.

Jan. 10, 1891.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

The most Popular Scientific Paper in the world.

Volume XLIII. New Series.

Only $2.00 a Year, including postage. Weekly, 52 Numbers a Year.

This widely circulated and rapidly increasing paper is published weekly. Every number contains a large amount of useful information, and a large number of illustrations of new inventions and discoveries, representing Engineering Works, Steam Machinery, New Inventions, Novelties in Mechanism, and many other subjects. It is a paper of science, of art, of progress, and of the future.

Terms of Subscription.—One copy of the Scientific American will be sent for one year, postage prepaid, to any subscriber, who will send the price in advance. Three dollars and twenty cents by the post-office, or by express, or by registered mail. Single copies, five cents. Subscribers may order by mail, or by express, or by registered mail. Subscribers may order by mail, or by express, or by registered mail.

$100 A MONTH

AGENTS

"NEW BOOK"

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

CHAS. E. WEST

